Dear Mr. Dallaway:

It is my pleasure to inform you that you have been awarded a David Marr Memorial Prize for your paper, "Memory for multiplication facts".

The award is given in recognition of outstanding student-authored papers. Selection of winners was made on the basis of initial reviewers' ratings which were used to determine 14 candidates, a local committee which selected 9 finalists, and then external reviewers whose ratings were used to determine the 4 winners.

You will receive an honorarium of $375.00, which will be given to you during an informal award ceremony at the General Business Meeting of the Conference, 1:00-2:00 p.m., Friday July 31. Please plan on attending the meeting. The prize money is contributed by an anonymous donor.

The Conference Program will announce the winners to the public. The time for your talk remains as previously scheduled, 3:20 - 3:40 p.m., Friday July 31.

On behalf of the reviewers, the local committee, and the external judges, I congratulate you!

Sincerely,
